HONGKONG, MARCH 14TH, 1907.

The receipt of a deeply interesting pamphlet in which a large number of residents in the Far East testify to the superlative merits of a patent medicine "gives furiously to think." Assuming that they are all actually existent and traceable persons, and that they have not been paid to proclaim the miraculous efficacy of the nostrum, what is it that makes them so willing to remember and recount their past miseries, and to urge on others the advisability of giving their mixture a trial? The patentees will suggest that it is gratitude, but as these people all paid, presumably, for their cures, and as some knowledge of human nature teaches that gratitude is not a universal attribute, some more satisfactory answer has to be sought. In some cases it may be egotism pure and simple; and in others, sheer indifference to responsibility and disinclination to refuse the vendor's request; but about many of these testimonials there is an earnestness strongly suggestive of propagandist fervour. May it not be that there is some affinity between the worthy rejoicer over a drug that "did him good" and the expounder of a creed that seems all sufficient to the one expounding? Are the volunteer advocates of pet policies on a par with the people who would, quite disinterestedly, persuade us to take pills? The suspicion grows, and becomes something more than a mere suspicion, that these worthy folk have much in common. Abolish ceilings and kissing, cries one; there be plaguey rats in the first and genus in the second. You are ruined without Fiscal Protection, says another; and three hundred odd bishops draft a book of instructions outlining a cult that alone can save all sorts and conditions of souls. They are alike in their catholicity, these well-meaning friends of ours, whether pushing pills or propaganda. The patent chemical compound will cure anything; a host of witnesses assure us that it has cured everything, from indigestion to housemaid's knee; and just as it is no respecter of diseases, so the ethical, religious, political panacea claims to fit all persons and all circumstances. There are so many of these universal remedies, too, and so many enthusiastic prescribers thereof, that the normal, healthy person hardly knows where to seek peace that he may find it. "You are not looking at all well," comes the greeting, to one absolutely unconscious of anything wrong. "What you want is a pick-me-up. Take a bromide." Very often the suggestion does its work; the faith-cure, does its part; and a well person feeling as he really is and was, joins the ranks of the fussy, meddlesome, imprudent, well-meaning, but insufferable busybodies who go about offering unnecessary advice and unneeded reforms. Most sane minds are aware, if ever they indulge in the luxury of reflection, that there cannot possibly in the nature of things be any medicine that will cure all diseases or suit all patients. Sugared water with a Latin label will, and does, cure most of the diseases of the imagination, and probably this accounts for many of the illustrated testimonials that are thrust into our letter boxes from time to time. The point to note is that the drug that cures a certain disease for one patient may be useless, and even dangerous, to another patient with the same disease. This is a point about which we suppose even doctors never disagree. It is no with creeds and politics. This is no mere analogy, no parallel of superficial resemblances. It seems to us that it is a point which, while not new or original, is habitually ignored by missionaries, politicians, and social reformers. Pages of concrete examples could be cited, but perhaps this is far enough to let a quick circular take us.

Messrs. Hughes and Hough commence this afternoon a two days' sale by public auction of a very fine collection of Japanese curios.

The Band of the 12th Duke of Cornwall's Own Balaclava being engaged, will not play at the King Edward Hotel during dinner this (Thursday) evening.

Yesterday afternoon a football match was played at Causeway Bay between St. Joseph's College and the Diocesan School, the former team winning by three goals to nil.

In describing a defendant in a police court case on Tuesday as a "Turkish Jew" we appear to have been in error. We are informed that the man in question is an Armenian Christian.

An American burglar, Joseph P. Donoghue, charged a sampan man for attempting to steal $10.00 from him while in his sampan. The complainant failed to furnish satisfactory evidence, and the defendant was discharged.

Owners of private rishas should note the risks of leaving their vehicles exposed at night. They are frequently stripped of their fittings. A native, charged with this offence yesterday, was sentenced by Mr. Hazland to three weeks' imprisonment and four hours in the stocks.

Yesterday Mr. G. P. Lammert offered for sale by public auction the steam launch Aperade at Queen's Statue wharf. There was a good attendance and bidding was brisk, the launch being eventually knocked down to the Ip O firm for $1,950.

One of the decorations on King Charles's statue at London on Jan. 29, took the form of a crown bearing the following inscription: "Jacobus Rex, from some who remember in Bradford." Bradford must be gratified, on its memory; but why leave out Queen Anne?

The death took place at Penang on March 2nd of Miss Fitzgerald, daughter of Bishop J. N. Fitzgerald D.D., who, along with Bishop Oldham, presided over the deliberations of the Methodist Conference held recently at Penang. The deceased lady contracted a severe type of small-pox to which disease she succumbed after a week's illness.

The formation of the Japan Celluloid Company, which has been promoted with the joint capital of Japanese, British and German investors, was registered in London last December. The site of the factory has been secured and purchased at Aboshi in the name of Messrs. Iwai and Matsuda, who are the leading promoters of the company, and steps are being taken for the issue of shares.

A coolie named Lo Ching died at Mongkok on Tuesday under circumstances which led to four men being charged yesterday with manslaughter. Apparently several coolies had a dispute and a scuffle with him. Lo Ching was belaboured each other with bamboo. Then, it is said, a lukong interfered. Deceased ran along Station Street and dropped dead. His rival and other two coolies were arrested and the lukong was also charged. Mr. Hazland remanded all pending inquiries.

The net profit of the Bank of Formosa for the second half of last year amounted to Y247,503, which brought up the total profit for the year to Y377,101, including a surplus brought forward. After providing for reserves, &c., a dividend has been paid at the rate of 10 per cent. per annum.

The well-known whisky prosecutions have assumed a new phase. The Tillington Borough Council, after spending several thousand pounds, have now arrived at a settlement with the defendants, and appointed a deputation, headed by the Mayor (Alderman Elliott), to wait upon the Local Government Board, and request that a Royal Commission shall be appointed to deal with the question and settle it in the interests of the public. The distillers have supported this appeal to the Local Government Board.

Mrs. Annie Beant will leave India in the first week in May for America, where she makes an extended lecturing tour. She returns to England after a couple of weeks there, and again leaves on tour on the Continent where she visits important Theosophical centres. She leaves Europe in the first week in October for Ceylon, where she will make a fortnight's stay, and deliver a series of lectures. She returns to India early in November. After spending a few weeks at headquarters at Adyar, she will go to Benares for the next Convention.

His Majesty the King has appointed the Army Council, consisting of the Right Hon. Mr. Haldane, Secretary of War, General the Hon. Sir N. G. Lytton, K. C. B. (Chief of the General Staff), Lieut.-General Sir W. G. Nicholson, K. C. B. (the Quarter-master-General), Lieut.-General C. W. B. Douglas, C. B. (the Adjutant-General), Brig.-General C. F. Hadden (Director of Artillery in the department of the Master-General of the Ordnance) Earl of Portsmouth, and Mr. T. R. Buchanan, M.P. (who was formerly the Financial Secretary and Finance Member of the Council).

According to a San Francisco C-H telegram on February 2nd nearly fifty white boys employed at the plant of the Western Glass Manufacturing Company, Denver, went on strike because a number of Japanese and Filipinos working at the plant receive from 25 cents to 75 cents more in the daily wage than they do. It is alleged that older Orientals work harder than the American boys. A squad of policemen went to the plant the company fearing that the strikers would resort to violence. At night the strikers built bonfires around the plant and jeered the Japanese and Filipinos.

We learn from a Japanese consular report that the demand for German sugar has largely increased in Japan, and importations are increasing. Alarmed at this, the Japan Sugar Refining Company has begun to manufacture sugar of the same quality for the purpose of checking the importation of the German product, and recently sold "S. L. quality" at Y15.05 per 100 lbs, 50 or 60 lbs cheaper than the German sugar. This underselling has greatly reduced the number of Japanese merchants giving contracts for importation of German sugar, and the Japanese Sugar Refining Company is expected to attain its object in stopping the import of the German article.

The Nagasaki Hotel report—states the Nagasaki Press—was as follows: "The gross profit on working account amount to Y13,300.65, which after deducting all charges leaves a net profit of Y8,577, which the directors propose to deal with as follows:—To write off building, Y3,015.40; electric light plant, Y1,732.13; furniture, Y1,221.21; carry forward to next account, Y2,849.26. The Chairman explained that the improvement in the steamship service to Vladivostok had greatly reduced their business. Whereas in former days it was necessary that passengers to that port should wait at Nagasaki from seven to fourteen days for a steamer, vessels now came in the morning and left in the afternoon.

The following amusing item appears in the Japan Advertiser:—As the coolies were slowly turning over the odds and ends, which were found in the ruins of the fire on Jizosaki, one of the oldest residents of Yokohama, pointing to the small tumbledown store which now marks the limit of the fire, said: "Thirty-five years ago, that house stood alone on this hill and was known among foreigners as being able to furnish 'koke' and 'hara'." This hill was then called 'Coffee House Hill.' No 'rikishas' were used by then, and down then, and five men would buy more show than a dollar obtains nowadays. English words were unknown then. Nowadays even the Japanese store keepers not only speak English fluently, but write it as well. Look at that sign for example." A small wooden board, appearing painfully new, amidst all the blackened and charred wood, stated as follows:—
Tanabe Quitell.

Collins, the man who was imprisoned in Japan as a Russian spy, and recently arrested in Tientsin, confessed to have been smuggling explosives at the instance of a certain high official in Peking in connection with the "revolutionary" crusade. It is reported from Tientsin that the two Anarchists, Tang and Feng, who were arrested the other day upon the evidence of the foreigner Collins have confessed that they intended to blow up the Imperial Place, and other prominent reactionaries who had been traitorous advisers to the Empress Dowager to the detriment of the nation and empire. Two other alleged anti-monarchists, recently arrested in Peking, have further confessed that there are at least two thousand of their comrades in Tientsin, Peking, and other towns in the vicinity of the Capital, vowed to the destruction of all reactionaries who are working the ruin of the Empire.

The interest in the contest for the Chancellorship of Oxford, the first open contest in living memory, is increasing daily. RUSSIA IN THE FAR EAST.

VICEROYALTY AB LISHED

The Globe's St. Petersburg correspondent says:—The war party here is greatly displeased at the action of the Imperial authorities in having decided to abolish the post of Viceroy of the Far East. It has been announced officially that the withdrawal of the Russian troops from Manchuria has made it no longer necessary for Russia to appoint a supreme authority in Trans-Baikalia, the Amur Territory, and the Maritime Provinces on the Pacific coast line. The "Daily Vostok" gives a very gloomy picture of the state of Harbin; in fact, it calls that town "a dying town," and remarks that although several large buildings, the railway station, a school, and a few hotels give the place an imposing air, a distance, yet a closer inspection reveals the terrible state of affairs. The buildings are neglected and falling to pieces; the walls are cracked, and many roofs have fallen in; the Chinese sneak about the town at will, and the general impression is that the place will soon be abandoned to its former owners, for, after all, Russia can no longer in spending vast sums of money on a town in Manchuria.

AN AMERICAN SARCASTIC.

He is attached to the British Consulate and is regarded locally as a decent sort of a chap. He was discussing England the other day with a fair and well-travelled member of the smart set. "I like Englishmen," said the young lady, but about some things they are awfully stupid. It takes them forever to see a joke." "I say, that's rather rough, you know. It's the Scot that can't see a joke," replied the other. "No," insisted the fair one. "I've met some very bright Scotchmen. I've met some that made jokes that even I could not see right away. But an Englishman! Why to make an Englishman see a joke one must put it into a shogun and shoot it into him." The consular chap grinned, then smiled and said: "How perfectly ridiculous, my dear girl. You can't put a joke in a shogun."

SUPREME COURT.

Wednesday, March 13th.

IN ORIGINAL JURISDICTION.

Before Mr. A. G. WISE (PUNISH JUDGE).

A DISPUTED AGREEMENT.

The long standing case of Chan Wo and others v. Chan Yam to recover $1258 was continued.

Hon. Mr. H. E. Pollock, K.C., instructed by Mr. C. F. Dixon (of Mr. John Hastings' office) appeared for plaintiffs, and Mr. M. W. Slade, instructed by Mr. F. P. Watt (of Messrs. Dratton and Hett) represented the defendant. Mr. M. W. Slade briefly reviewed the circumstances already before the Court. In the year 1896, he said, the Wah Hing Leong firm brought an action against the Wah Tai firm, recovered judgment and issued execution through the British Consul at Canton and the Chinese authorities. A cross action was then instituted, and while it was pending the Wah Hing Leong firm was dissolved. The plaintiffs took over the firm's assets and liabilities and defendants retired from it. An agreement was prepared and signed by certain persons present at a meeting. The dispute which was to be settled by the Court was whether an alteration which appeared on that agreement was made before or after its execution. The alteration was in reference to the debt of the Wah Tai and the dispute as to whether the word "included" had been altered from "excluded." Case adjourned.

CANTON.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT).

March 12th.

OFFICIAL APPOINTMENT.

Viceroy Chou Fu has appointed Special Taotai Ho Yan (brother of Dr. Ho Kai of Hongkong) to the following positions:—Deputy of I. M. Customs and Native Customs, and Deputy for the Agriculture, Commerce and Labour Bureau. Mr. Ho Yan is ex-Consul General of San Francisco. He was educated in England and was at Washington with his brother-in-law, H. E. Wu-Fing-Fang.

OPIMUM REGULATIONS.

The Government appears really desirous of stamping out the habit of smoking opium in Kwangtung. The Provincial Treasurer, the Judge and two other officials have drawn up regulations and instructions have been given to forward copies to all the officials in the Province. They will be in force within three months from date of receipt of the despatch. One of the regulations is that all the habitual smokers have to take out a license from the local authorities with full particulars of age, name, native place, place of residence, occupation and daily consumption of opium. People above 60 years of age on obtaining the license will be permitted to continue to smoke. Those who are under 60 years of age will be given a limited time to give up the habit.

FAMINE INEVITABLE.

The price of rice in the Tung Koon district has risen to almost 83 per picul. It is reported that the rice merchants in that place have raised the price on account of the scarcity of this commodity in Canton. The people were very angry with the rice merchants for putting the price up and a mob collected together in front of the rice guild hall. They attacked and set fire to the building. A force of police was sent out to quell the riot. Two of the rioters were shot and ten or more wounded. This made matters worse and the people got more angry. All the shops outside the city closed up. On the 9th instant thousands of hungry men robbed all the rice and money from the rice shops outside the city. The magistrate on being informed of what had occurred ordered all the city gates to be immediately closed. The riot has not been quelled yet. It is reported that the magistrates have telegraphed to the Canton authorities to despatch a company of soldiers to restore order.

PAPER TRADE.

Fat Shan has the largest native paper trade in the Kwangtung Province. In recent years considerable foreign paper has been imported. This competition has reduced the native production to a certain extent. Large credit has hitherto been given by wholesale merchants to dealers, and owing to bad times many of the dealers have failed. The wholesale merchants guild has called a meeting at which a resolution was passed that in future no credit will be given to dealers, all transactions to be cash less 2 per cent. discount.

PIRACY.

A Junk plying between Fatshan and Samui ran on a sand bank near Sha Yee and all efforts to get her off failed. Pirates soon boarded her and ransacked the junk, carrying off over $7,000 worth of booty. This robbery was committed in broad daylight.

CHINA AND MANILA STEAMSHIP CO. LD.

The twenty-fourth ordinary general meeting of shareholders in the China and Manila Steamship Co. Ltd. was held at the office of the general managers, Messrs. Sheehan, Toms and Co., yesterday morning. Mr. R. Sheehan presided, and there were also present Dr. J. W. Noble, Messrs. H. P. White and N. A. Stobs (consulting committee), G. Moffatt (secretary), A. G. Gordon and R. E. Barretto.

The SECRETARY read the notice convening the meeting.

The CHAIRMAN then said: Gentlemen, the report and accounts were issued to you on 25th February, and with your permission we will now take them as read. As I foreshadowed to you at last year's meeting, the past year's business does not compare favourably with that of 1905; both cargo and passengers fell off, our gross income being some $30,000 less than before. By the closest economy we have made up partly for this, so that our net profit is only about $27,000 below last year's. After allowing for depreciation and paying $1,000 to credit of Reserve Fund as per Articles of Association, there remains sufficient to pay a dividend of $1.00 per share absorbing $25,000, and leaving $355.57 to be carried forward. You will observe that our loan from the Company's Bankers was reduced from about $100,000 to $133,000, and that interest paid has accordingly come down to $9,835 as against $13,189 paid the year before. The Sundry Debtors and Outstanding Receipts on 31st December have since nearly all been collected. As regards the present year, I can only say that we have not begun to yield, and that at the moment there is a much stronger feeling in the coasting freight market, which I hope will keep up. Cargo is, however, far from plentiful in this trade nowadays. The number of Chinese ships on whom we used to depend for a great deal of cargo is much reduced, many of them having closed their firms in Manila, and only a few do business there. The complete abolition of that trade has taken place in the character of the Manila trade amply justifies the steps we took in building boats for first-class passenger traffic, for had we the old type of boat and only Chinese passengers and cargo to depend upon now, we should be badly off indeed. I am glad to answer any questions before moving the adoption of the report and accounts.

Questions being asked, the CHAIRMAN explained that the report and accounts as presented had been adopted and passed.

The motion seconded, and the motion was carried unanimously.

It was proposed by Mr. BARRETTO, seconded by Mr. GORDON and agreed that Messrs. N. A. Stobs, H. P. White, A. V. Aprie and Dr. J. W. Noble be re-elected to the consulting committee.

Dr. Noble proposed the reappointment of Messrs. W. H. Folsom and A. O. D. Gardin as auditors.

Mr. WHITE seconded, and the motion was agreed to.

The CHAIRMAN—That is all the business, gentlemen. Dividend warrants are ready now.

J. D. FENWICK & CO., LTD.

The directors have now submitted to the shareholders a statement of accounts for the year ending 31st December, 1906, as follows:—After writing off the sum of $3,000 for depreciation the net profit for the year amounts to $21,470.10 to which has to be added the sum of $8,915.84 brought forward from last year's account. After payment of directors' and auditors' fees it is proposed to pay a dividend of 7 per cent, or $175 per share on the paid up capital of the company, which will absorb $14,500.00, leaving a balance of $10,885.94 to be carried forward to next account.

Mr. A. Rodger, according to the articles, retires, but offers himself for re-election.

The accounts have been audited by Mr. H. Percy Smith, who offers himself for re-election.

EXTRAORDINARY SCENES IN COURT.

ARGUMENT AND IRRELEVANCY.

The further hearing of the charge of larceny preferred by the British American Tobacco Company against C. H. Kane, shipping clerk, was the occasion of remarkable scenes at the Magistrate's Court. Mr. C. D. Stephens, counsel for the prosecution, and Mr. G. K. Hall, counsel for the defence, Mr. Brutton, and Mr. Stephens, were present. The charge referred to the theft of 100 cases of "Egyptian Delight" cigarettes. At the previous hearing Mr. A. Harrison, the manager of the prosecuting company, declined to say whether the signature on a letter produced was his or not, while Mr. Stephens objected to the production of the letter. Mr. Stephens—I wish to mention before the case proceeds that inquiries have been made with regard to the letter referred to by my friend yesterday, Mr. Shaw, to whom the letter was sent, says that the letter was sent out without his authority or knowledge, and I must ask for it to be returned. It is private and has nothing to do with the case. His Worship—I don't know whether I can do anything or not, Mr. Stephens. Mr. Stephens—It was not given up by Mr. Fung Wai-chun. Mr. Brutton—It was not? Mr. Stephens—No. Mr. Brutton—Some one is lying. His Worship—Mr. Shaw has his remedy. If the letter was stolen— Mr. Stephens—I don't say it was stolen. His Worship—If it was abstracted— Mr. Stephens—It was handed out without authority. The clerk has been instructed to get the letter back. His Worship—I don't think I can do anything at present, because it has been put in and marked for identification. Mr. Stephens—I think it should be shown on the evidence how it came to be there. His Worship—I am afraid I cannot do anything. If I had the power I would. Mr. Stephens—I object to it being there. His Worship—On what authority? Mr. Stephens—It is quite irrelevant. I object all along. His Worship—I have noted that. Mr. Stephens—It is irrelevant matter and should not be brought in. His Worship—If you can point to any authority— Mr. Stephens—It is laid down. (Quotes.) Continuing—It is done to effect the prosecution. It has nothing whatever to do with the case. My client has a right to protect his business. His Worship—The witness was asked if he knew anything about the letter. He was asked several times if it was his signature. It was easy enough to deny if it was not his signature. Mr. Stephens—That is so. We have not admitted it. I think, your Worship, there will be an application to you before long that that letter be returned. His Worship—At present I can't. I can make a note of it. I don't see what I can do for you. If the prosecution do not make out their case, the defendant will be discharged and the letter will be returned. If not he will be committed for trial and the letter— Mr. Stephens—In the meantime, may the letter be returned to Mr. Shaw? His Worship—It is easy enough for them to recover the letter. They know the course open to them. I don't know whether you are instructed on their behalf. Mr. Stephens—No. Mr. Brutton—It is entirely in their own hands. A press copy of the letter can be put in and that letter can be taken out. After a discussion as to the wisdom of this course— Mr. Brutton asked Mr. Stephens if he produced a press copy of the letter. Mr. Stephens—I won't answer it. Mr. Brutton—I am asking a civil question. Mr. Stephens—I am not here to answer questions. Mr. Brutton—You are the solicitor for the prosecution and I ask you if you produce this copy. Yes or no? Mr. Stephens—I won't answer it. I am not here to be questioned. Mr. Brutton—Any question put to the other side should demand a reply. (To his Worship)—You see the position they take up. Mr. Stephens—I am not here to be examined. You can ask the witness. Mr. Brutton—I would ask your Worship to dismiss the case. If the man does not answer the questions put to him, your Worship has power to dismiss the case at once. Mr. Stephens—I am not here to answer questions. But I propose to put Mr. Harrison in the box for examination. Mr. Brutton—I ask your Worship to dismiss the case, because a question which they are bound to answer has not been answered. With regard to the letter, it may have been stolen, but that has nothing to do with it. The letter is there. I ask your Worship to dismiss the case. His Worship—I cannot do it. I don't know whether you wish a only one. Mr. Brutton—He should answer the question put to him. It is not for him to say whether it is irrelevant or not. He does not know whether it is irrelevant. I know. He should answer the questions put to him unless your Worship says he should not do so. Mr. Stephens—I will leave to your Worship. His Worship—I let the last witness refused to say whether it was his signature or not. A document was produced and when asked he said—I make no statement. Mr. Brutton—In these circumstances I ask for the case to be dismissed. You see the position. I am defending this man. I am in a position to show there is no charge against this man. I am entitled to have my question answered. I am entitled to have the case dismissed on that ground. If the prosecutor refuses to answer the questions put to him, I ask your Worship to exercise your authority and dismiss the case. Mr. Stephens—If your Worship will take my objection to the question. If he is to be forced in this way to produce the letter—I don't say he will—it is under reservation. He objects to answer the question. His Worship—I don't know what the question is. Mr. Stephens—Perhaps Mr. Brutton will put it again. Mr. Brutton repeated the question to witness, asking if that was his signature to the letter produced. Witness—I make no statement with regard to that letter. I maintain it is irrelevant to the charge. Mr. Brutton—On that ground and on that answer I ask your Worship to dismiss the case. His Worship—Have I the power to discharge on that? Mr. Brutton—You have the power to discharge at any time. Mr. Stephens—I don't think so, your Worship. His Worship—I don't think I have the power, Mr. Brutton.

His Worship—He only says it is irrelevant. Mr. Brutton—It is not the judge of relevancy. The only question he can decline to answer are questions which incriminate him. If he is going to say— His Worship—He cannot say it is his privilege. Witness—It might be injurious to my business. His Worship—Can't you get a subpoena to have the letter back? Mr. Brutton—I am entitled even now. His Worship—I will adjourn it if you like. In the meantime I will look up the point. Mr. Brutton—As your Worship pleases. His Worship—Has Mr. Stephens any objection? Mr. Stephens—I don't object. His Worship—I am sorry that this delay has been occasioned. I had hoped to finish this morning. Mr. Brutton—If the prosecution put all these obstacles in the way, it can't be helped. Mr. Stephens—To save the time of the Court and avoid all this argument and hickering I would advise my client—leaving the legal question to be decided either by your Worship or by the Supreme Court—to make a statement with reference to that letter, the question of relevancy to be argued later. I say it is irrelevant and I ask your Worship to put that down. That question can be decided at the Supreme Court. Mr. Brutton—It will never get there. Mr. Stephens—I have a right to reserve my right. He is quite right to refuse to answer the question because it is irrelevant. Mr. Brutton—I submit it rests entirely with your Worship to say whether that letter is irrelevant or not. His Worship—Mr. Stephens has seen the letter and it is easy enough for his client to answer the question. I think I know what Mr. Brutton wants to prove by that letter. I think Mr. Brutton should produce that letter and ask the question. Mr. Stephens—We have something to guard ourselves against. That letter might affect my client's business. Mr. Brutton—You are trying to affect my client's liberty. Mr. Stephens—If your Worship says he is bound to answer the question I shall be bound by it. His Worship—On what grounds do you object to the question being answered? Mr. Stephens—I contain references to the manner in which the company conduct their business in this colony. His Worship—As a general rule a witness can refuse to answer any question which incriminates him or his business. If you like to have a consultation with your client— Mr. Stephens—I have had a consultation with him since nine o'clock this morning. His Worship—It will be ruled out by the Crown Solicitor if that is irrelevant. Mr. Brutton—It will be produced again at the Supreme Court if it is out of it. His Worship—The unfortunate part of it is that I think it is relevant and admissible. Mr. Stephens—My client has heard your ruling. To Witness—You are prepared to answer that question on that explanation? Witness—Yes. Mr. Brutton—Will your Worship note that he refused to answer the question? Mr. Stephens—He has not. Mr. Brutton—Now, Mr. Harrison, was that letter signed by you? Witness—Look here, Mr. Brutton, I am not going to have answers put into my mouth. I submit I ought to give my evidence on my own way in my own words. Mr. Brutton is not to say what I have to say. If I am compelled to say what Mr. Brutton dictates to me then I must refuse to answer. Mr. Brutton—Is this letter signed by you? Witness—I wish to make a statement. His Worship—You have a perfect right to make a statement under re-examination. Mr. Brutton—Is this letter signed by you? Witness—Yes. Mr. Brutton—Does this letter refer to "Egyptian Delight" tobacco? Witness—I cannot be made to impart anything which is not there. Mr. Brutton—Does this letter refer to "Egyptian Delight" tobacco? Witness—Let me look at the letter. Mr. Brutton hands the letter to him. Mr. Brutton—You know what is in the letter? Witness—I am not prepared to answer that. Mr. Brutton—You decline to answer that. Is that what you mean? Yes or no? Witness—I don't reply. Mr. Brutton—Do you decline to answer it? That is my question, Mr. Harrison. No answer. His Worship—He says I cannot answer. Mr. Brutton—He says he declines to answer. He knows what it refers to. So do I. Witness—I have given you my answer. Mr. Brutton—You have not. Witness—I have given you my answer. Mr. Brutton—I shall make application to commit this witness for contempt. I am entitled to— Witness—I shall not use the words he chooses to put into my mouth. His Worship—The question asked is: "Does this letter refer to 'Egyptian Delight' tobacco?" Mr. Stephens—He has now and you can clear up anything you like under re-examination. Witness—I will give you an answer. That letter does not refer to the "Egyptian Delight" tobacco which is the subject of this charge. Mr. Brutton—I will ask you another question. Does it refer to "Egyptian Delight" tobacco? Witness—It does not refer to the 100 cases, the subject of this charge. Mr. Brutton—Does it refer to "Egyptian Delight" tobacco generally? Witness—I have given you my answer. Mr. Brutton—Does it refer to the 100 cases of tobacco which came by the— Mr. Brutton—(reading)—"We have frequent consignments which are always burnt on the forehearth here because they are of no value whatever." Does that paragraph refer to "Egyptian Delight" tobacco? Witness—I have given you a sufficient answer. Mr. Brutton—You have not. Witness—I am not in a position to answer the Company's business. Mr. Brutton—I don't care about the Company's business. Witness—I don't suppose you do. Mr. Brutton—I ask you if this letter refers to "Egyptian Delight" tobacco? You say no. Witness—It would not be fair to myself to answer that. Mr. Brutton—I don't care about the Company or yourself. I insist upon an answer. It is only fair to my client. Witness—Sufficient has been said about this. Mr. Brutton—I am the best judge of that. It is not what you consider. You are here to answer questions that are put to you. Witness—I am prepared to answer the question put to me in a decent and gentlemanly manner. Mr. Brutton—I repeat the question. Does that letter refer generally to "Egyptian Delight" tobacco?

Witness—I would like a consultation with my solicitor, with your Worship's permission. His Worship—I think the witness is entitled to that. Mr. Brutton—I don't think he is your Worship. If he declines to answer any question which the Court permit he shall be guilty of contempt of Court. His Worship—I think the witness has a perfect right to see his solicitor. Mr. Brutton—If he declines to answer a civil question he should be committed for contempt of Court. Mr. Stephens—He does not decline to answer. Solicitor and client then leave the court. On returning— Mr. Brutton repeats the question. Witness—That letter refers to a shipment of "Egyptian Delight" tobacco. Mr. Brutton—Does this paragraph (already quoted) refer to "Egyptian Delight" tobacco? Witness—In certain circumstances it does. Mr. Brutton—Have you received consignments of tobacco from the American Tobacco Company in the United States similar to that "Egyptian Delight" tobacco? Witness—We have received from America similar tobacco. Mr. Brutton—Have you received consignments from the American Tobacco Company. That is the question? We have received from America. I must put it that way. I am sorry, but I must. Mr. Brutton—All right. You have received from America similar tobacco. Do you want any mistakes. Do you as a branch office in Hongkong deal with other people in America than the American Tobacco Company?—Yes. You do. Do you receive from them "Egyptian Delight" tobacco?—Tobacco is shipped. Enough—I ask you a plain question?—There is a mistake in the letter. That is why. We don't want any mistakes. There is a plain statement to go upon? Mr. Brutton then repeated the question. Witness—"Egyptian Delight" tobacco is shipped to us by the British American Company. Well, then, call it the British American Company?—I think not. You know you are the manager?—I think I don't know. What we have done in the past I don't know. I am only speaking of what you know?—I think not. A man can't say any more than he thinks. Then we may take it that this letter refers only to "Egyptian Delight" tobacco consigned to you by the British American Tobacco Company in the United States?—I think you may take it so. Who was the writer of this letter?—I think you must take it so. I want a plain answer. Yes or no?—You can't make me say so. Question repeated. Witness—What company did you say, Mr. Brutton? Mr. Brutton—British American Company. There was a mistake in this letter. When you wrote American Tobacco Company you meant the British American Tobacco Company?—Yes. Then you say that the 100 cases referred to in this letter did not form part of the consignment which you say was stolen?—They are not. Were instructions given that the cases arriving by the "Lowther Castle" were to be destroyed?—Yes. About 5th or 6th or 7th February?—Yes. Was any evidence that the portion of the tobacco in the hands of the police referred to the shipment ex "Lowther Castle" alluded to in the letter which was to be burned. He made a mistake the previous day when he mentioned that a certain consignment came by the "Verona". Witness—Was it quite as to when delivery had been taken and replied that he could answer the questions asked without a reference to documents. A dispute arose as to whether witness said he delivered of the goods. Mr. Stephens denied that the witness admitted taking delivery of the tobacco and explained that the misunderstanding arose because Mr. Brutton asked his questions so quickly. Mr. Brutton—Do you think I ask the questions haphazard? Mr. Stephens—No, I do not. Witness—These were Mr. Brutton's words and not mine. Mr. Brutton then served witness with a subpoena to produce certain documents, and after further discussion the hearing was adjourned till after 11:30. On re-opening— A press copy of the letter in dispute was handed in, but his Worship said he did not think he had power to withdraw the original copy of a letter put in and replace it with a press copy. Witness was cross-examined as to godown receipt. Will your books show when delivery was taken?—I'm afraid I don't claim acquaintance with our books. Will you be able to produce your rent receipts?—I think so. Will they show when delivery was taken?—I cannot say, but I think I shall be able to produce for you the date when delivery was taken. Mr. Brutton—Subject to these papers being produced, your Worship, I will not proceed further with this witness. Witness—Do I understand the cross-examination is finished, your Worship? His Worship—With the exception of any questions which may arise on those documents. Mr. Stephens had proceeded to re-examine another document as produced on which it was necessary for Mr. Brutton to cross-examine. Speaking about a certain 100 cases of tobacco he said: They were taken delivery of on or before November 9th?—I don't admit that. How can I when I don't know when the goods were taken out of the Godowns. Your Worship, the question is nonsensical. Does the receipt up to December 9th show any rent payable in respect of the 100 cases of Egyptian Delight tobacco ex s. Verba?—It does not. Does the one of January 9th?—It is not a bit of use asking me these questions. I say they are not questions. They may be in your opinion, but still I ask them. Then you must give me time to answer them. I ask you if the 100 cases—You ask me what I am not in a position to answer. Well, we'll put the question in another way. If the 100 cases were in the godown after November 9th, would you be charged with rent in the receipt or not if the items were delivered to you about December 9th?—I would not say. It is not a bit of good asking these questions and I am not going to answer them. I am not acquainted with the Godown Company's business and so forth. You said today accounts were rendered everybody about "The Korean Gazette". I thought they were. (To his Worship)—I call upon your Worship to adjourn the case until to-morrow. The questions are coming on one the other, and they are not in my pocket or in my head. Mr. Brutton asked witness to produce a certain godown receipt.

Witness did, and threw it across the Court to the solicitor. Mr. Brutton pointed out to his Worship that witness had been asked to produce receipts. Witness—A man with a case would never say such a thing. I promised to produce the receipts to-morrow and you adjourned your cross-examination, and now interrupt the re-examination. Do you know so little of your own business that you cannot say whether you've had tobacco in the godown since November 9th?—You may put it that way if you like. I cannot tell you from my mind. Mr. Brutton—We adjourned the case this morning for him to produce the documents mentioned and he produces one. Witness—Mr. Stephens, are you going to re-examine again? Mr. Brutton—I haven't finished yet. If you can produce one document you can produce the others. His Worship—You must give him time. Witness—I suppose if you gave me notice to produce something from Singapore this morning you would expect it here this afternoon! That is the sort of reasonable man you are. Mr. Stephens—My client is doing his best to get these documents and was working hard all the time. Mr. Brutton—I took my coat off to work during the time. Mr. Stephens—Mr. Brutton does not give him a fair chance, and his are thrown out this is not willing to obtain the documents. His Worship—I don't think Mr. Brutton means that. Mr. Stephens—He takes to bullying the witness in such a way that he is not used to. (To Mr. Brutton)—Have you finished? Mr. Brutton—No, I have not. Mr. Stephens—Well, I can go on now? Mr. Brutton—I don't care whether you go on or not. Mr. Stephens then re-examined the witness, and the case for the prosecution closed. Mr. Brutton then applied for leave to recall Li Kee. Mr. Stephens strongly objected. Mr. Brutton—My friend must be very much afraid of what this witness is going to say. Mr. Stephens—No, not at all; but if that man has been induced with like that man Li Tui-toi, I am going to make a very strong point. Mr. Brutton interfered with a witness of this Court while under examination. The witness left the Court on Saturday at 1:30 p.m. and Mr. Brutton had the audacity to see him between that time and Monday. That is a point I am going to bring forward very strongly. His Worship—The man in his evidence says he went to Mr. Brutton. Mr. Stephens—He does, but if the man came to me I would not see him. If I did, that would be a case for the solicitor of the Court. No judge would ever allow such a thing, and it has been objected to before. I have got it out of the witness that he was Li Tui-toi. Mr. Brutton's office on Sunday, and that Mr. Brutton saw him. I say if he went Mr. Brutton should not have seen him, but Mr. Brutton went to the office on Sunday, a day on which he shouldn't have gone, and saw the man. Mr. Brutton—Certainly I did. At this stage some person in Court made a remark to Mr. Stephens in an undertone, and the solicitor replied, loud enough to be heard—No, no, I can't say that. Mr. Brutton—You can say anything you like, Mr. Stephens, but it is a fortunate thing you are not a young man. Mr. Stephens—Certainly I am not a young man, but I am as strong as a young man if you refer to that. His Worship here decided that Li Kee should be recalled. Mr. Brutton—I suppose my friend will say I have also tampered with this witness. Mr. Stephens—I haven't said so. That has got to be found out by the Court. Li Kee, recalled, said he was detained at No. 7 Police Station some days before the case. Whenever he went out a detective followed him. He was told by a detective that "cases were taken in a truck to 301 Queen's Road. On account of being detained, and not knowing what would happen, he related to the Court what the detective told him. After giving his evidence he was released. He was also told that Kane, the man without a name, had taken five cases to 410 Queen's Road. At the Police Court the detective said, Kane is a man without a name, do you see him? Witness pointed out defendant and the detective said "Yes". Re-examined—He had not spoken to Li Tui-toi since March 5th, neither had he been taken to any foreign office. When last he gave evidence he was in a state of confusion and great alarm, and pointed out Kane. Further evidence was called and the case adjourned.

FUNNELS AND FLAGS.

Reuter's latest list of caunillings (March 12th) mentions the—Doubtful, Den, of—Mains, Mazzog, Rhebanis, Glenora, Satusum, Shimus, and Silesis, (Ger). WARNING TO MARINERS. The attention of mariners is directed to the Harbour Master's warning on page 4, as to the necessity for keeping an extra good look out to-night in the vicinity of Hongkong. S. S. "HONGKONG" RECALLED. Report has it that the s.s. Hongkong, which stranded near Hainan Head last month, has been successfully refloated and towed to Hallow. There, temporary repairs will be effected and we understand she will be brought here to be docked. THE RELATED "PRINCESSES". After some little anxiety and enquiry for the overdue Princess Alice, the N. D. L. agent, Messrs. Melchers & Co., yesterday received the following telegram from Shanghai dated 11:25 a.m. "Becoming Steamer report having passed S. S. Princess Alice (sailed on Saturday 8 p.m. from Shanghai) all well on Monday morning during a fog at Sleep Island (112 miles from Shanghai)." She reached Hongkong yesterday afternoon, and leaves at 11 this morning. ANNOUNCEMENTS ON THE S. S. "KOROK". Travel on the s.s. Korok must be far from dull. The Japanese Calligraphy has the following about her last voyage from San Francisco to Hongkong: "One of the biggest hits of the trip was 'The Korean Gazette,' a real hot number, published Sunday, February 17. The staff was: editor-in-chief, Captain John Harrison; ship editor, Marice L. Leowenstein; manager, Honorable H. L. Padlock; reporter, everybody aboard. 'The Korean Gazette' sold for $1 per copy, $25 per month. It sold like hot cakes, over $100,000 being realized, and the entire proceeds were donated to the Seamen's Relief Association of San Francisco. Washington's birthday, February 22, was fittingly celebrated with an entertainment, speechmaking and a banquet. Honorable Alva

COMEDIAN'S STORYFace Became Blotchy from Use of Grease Paints—Lower Part was Covered with Red Pimples—
Doctor's Mixture had No Effect.CURED BY THE CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I am an amateur comedian. The troupe, during last summer, gave something like three shows a week, and it was necessary for each one to make up his face with grease paints. About the beginning of July my face began to get blotchy and became worse, and, till at the end of a week the lower part was covered with red pimples. I went to my doctor, who gave me some blood-mixture, which I took for about a fortnight without effect. I then purchased some Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment, and used them as directed. After a fortnight's usage the pimples began to dry up, after a month's treatment I was able to brush them off with a soft towel, they having become bits of dried-up white skin. I wish you to understand that I put the Cuticura on my face, not the hot weather. A. F. Trotman, 129 Barrow Road, Sparkhill, Birmingham, Feb. 12, 1906."

DOCTOR SUGGESTS
Cuticura and It Effects a Speedy Cure.

"My son, when about twelve years of age, suffered from dry scab spots on the head. He had these for some years and several doctors treated him, but without any permanent benefit. We had his head shaved as an experimental remedy, but this proved a failure. At last, one of the doctors suggested the use of Cuticura Ointment, and it gave me pleasure to report that the application of one box effected a cure. Walter Kerr, Woodside, Newcastle-on-Tyne, Roxburghshire, April 2, 1906."

NEW KPM ESS STEAMERS.

The Colombia of Victoria (British Columbia) says—(D. E. Brown, recently appointed manager of the C. P. R. steamers on the Pacific, has announced that two new Empress steamers, modelled after the Atlantic liners, will be built without delay to be ready to be placed in service on the Pacific, 18 months hence, when the present mail contract expires. The new liners, which will be improvements upon the Empress of Ireland and Empress of Britain, will have a speed of 17 knots and make the trip from Victoria to Yokohama under ten days. The fastest time made by the present Empresses is 10 days, 1 hour made by the Empress of Japan 6 months ago. This run to Hongkong will be made in from 17 to 19 days, the present mail contract calls for delivery of mails from London to Hongkong and vice versa in 29 days. Under the new contract the time will be reduced to 27 days, and it is necessary that new Empresses be placed in service to comply with these requirements. Trade on this route has been increasing enormously of recent years, and although the Empresses in service on the Pacific are excellent steamers, their supremacy is now threatened by faster and larger steamers placed in service by competing lines. The Pacific Mail liners have cut into the passenger trade and further competition is promised by the three new 12,500-ton turbine liners building at Nagasaki for the Toyo Kisen Kaisha. The intention is to divert the Empresses to the Canadian-Australian line, which is notoriously poorly served by the present steamers Manawa, Ararat, and Monaro. A mail subsidy of $10,000 is now being sought by the New Zealand Government for an improved service with steamers able to make the run from a New Zealand port to Victoria in 18 days, and it is presumed that the Empresses when placed in this service will make the New Zealand call en route from Australia, perhaps omitting Brisbane in favour of the New Zealand call.

The Kansas High Court has decided that a gold mine in the Klondike, discovered by Mr. Peter Anderson, then a missionary attached to the Swedish Missionary Society, belongs to the Society, as Mr. Anderson was at the time he discovered the mine an employee of the Society. Mr. Anderson's profit for the first year amounted to over 100,000 dollars, and the mine is still producing a large income.
